ANNOUNCEMENTS

Return of Pledge Cards

Now that we have heard from our Stewardship speakers, Neil James, Alexis McMillan and Laureatte Scott, it is time to turn in our pledge cards. Those attending church can easily collect theirs after the service while those at home can get the same from the website. Anyone needing a hard copy from the office can request it and it will be sent in the mail.

Letter from the Rector and Senior Warden

We have sent by email the promised letter from the rector and senior warden. We are all being invited to, as the collect says, read, walk, learn, and inwardly digest the contents thereof. We are virtually at the end of November, so we will be needing a generous offering from all of us, so we can fulfill our various obligations. Show your gratefulness always by supporting your church and the Lord's work in the world.

Patrick Charles recovering at home

We are learning from Leah Wiley that Patrick was able to resume work, but is doing so from home. Do continue to keep him in prayer as he remains in the care of the doctor.

Our Thanks

We wish to say a special word of thanks again to the many who made donations for the Thanksgiving Outreach. We are being told how grateful the recipients were to receive the gifts we sent.

UBE Membership

As you consider your Stewardship pledge for 2024, please make membership in the Union of Black Episcopalians (UBE) one of your commitments. Membership brochures are available in the church vestibule.

Capital Area Justice Ministry Update

There is an Action Kick-Off planned for Tuesday, December 12th at Saint Paul's UMC (1700 N. Meridian Rd.) beginning at 6:00 pm. All are invited.

Weekday Eucharist

As a reminder, the Eucharist is celebrated on Tuesdays and Thursdays each week. Do join us at 12:15 pm.

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK

Special Welcome

Today we welcome our friends from St. John's Episcopal Church as they bring with them the Saint John's Bible which is the first complete hand-scripted, fully illuminated Bible since the invention of the Gutenberg printing press over 500 years ago. The bible will be displayed in the Fellowship Hall after the Eucharist. We are grateful to Laurry Messer and her team of docents for joining us today.

Pray for the King and Carter Families

As a nation, we continue to mourn the passing of former First Lady Mrs. Rosalynn Carter—she was 96! Lots of glowing tributes have been paid to this extraordinary woman who remained at the side of President Jimmy Carter and fully immersed herself in whatever he was doing whether serving as Governor or President of the United States. So many across our nation and beyond have homes to live in, because she partnered with the former president in the Habitat for Humanity project. Two former parishioners of mine, Carl & Venita King are related to the Carters (they visited with us for my anniversary). I have extended condolences to them on behalf of the SMAA family. May Rosalynn rest in peace.

Darryl Tookes to Visit

A favorite son of St. Michael and All Angels and musician extraordinaire/vocalist, Darryl Tookes is joining us today. Always good to have you share your gifts with us.

Ready for Advent?

By next Sunday we will begin a new liturgical/ecclesiastical year, as we observe the first Sunday of Advent. Advent Sunday is the first day of Advent and kept on the Sunday nearest to St. Andrew's Day (November 30th). Four Sundays in Advent normally precede Christmas Day—Advent was formally kept as the "little Lent" with less strictness. Festivities are still discouraged except for the Third Sunday when rose colored vestments are used instead of the traditional purple.

WELCOME TO ST. MICHAEL

We extend a warm welcome to our guests. Thank you for worshipping with us today. If you are without a church home, we invite you to join our church family. Please sign the guest register, include your home address, phone number, and if you would like to receive our newsletter, news of special events and other happenings, please add your email address also.
